

Specialized Services provided in the department

- Restorative Dentistry
- Pulp therapies in primary and secondary teeth, LSTR: LESION STERILIZATION AND TISSUE REPAIR
- Apexogenesis and Apexification
- Stainless steel crown and Anterior crowns
- Diagnosis and management Paediatric Oral Pathologies
- Post and Core in primary and permanent teeth
- NAM: nasoalveolar molding for cleft lip and palate patients.
- Surgeries like cyst enucleation, supernumerary teeth, Apicectomy, Periapical surgery, Congenital Epulis excision
- Revascularization of immature permanent teeth
- Nursing bottle caries management
- Dental trauma management in primary and permanent tooth
- Paediatric Maxillofacial trauma
- Interceptive orthodontics (2by 4), (2by6), (full fixed)
- Space management in mixed dentition
- Orthopedic and Myofunctional appliances to manage skeletal malocclusion
- Habit control and habit breaking appliances
- Space regainers in mixed dentition
- Latest techniques like Hall's technique and regenerative endodontics using PRP and PRF and use of new materials like 3mix statin, theracal, pulpotec, chlorhexidine polymer used for pulp therapy.
- Use of silver diammine fluoride for active carious lesions for uncooperative children.
- Fixed functional appliances for treatment of malocclusion.
- Newer remineralising agents for early carious lesions and use of pit and fissure sealants and fluoride varnish for caries prevention.

- Esthetic management of discoloured teeth using techniques like etch bleach seal, resin infiltration, microabrasion and bleaching.
- Flouride estimation in drinking water of dental fluorosis patients reporting in opd in collaboration of faculty in environmental studies.